CARES, the Los Angeles County/USC Medical Center Auxiliary for Recruitment Education and Service, a California nonprofit corporation, is dedicated to serving patients and families at the Medical Center.

The nationally recognized CARES Child and Family Program offers free child care, educational activities, parent education, and screening to thousands of children and families each year.

CARES also operates hospital shops, sponsors events for medical/health education, supports programs that provides patient visitation, as well as comfort items to patients, clothing to discharged patients as required, and decorates patient care areas.

If you have any questions about CARES or its services, you may call (323) 226-6941. Also, an informational brochure is available at your request.

CARES membership dues start at $25 annually. As a CARES member you may apply to become a CARES volunteer: Work with children in Child Care Centers, assist in fund raising projects, become a Patient Relations Visitor, help out in the CARES Shops, and read to pediatric patients.
